HB 2764

January 21, 2010

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes, rather than requires, the court to have a defendant in a bail hearing to be brought before the court within 72 hours to determine if the bail bondsman's surrender of the defendant was for good cause.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Expenditures – Not Significant

Decrease Local Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumption:

- Not requiring the courts to have a defendant brought in within 72 hours will result in a small decrease in state and local government expenditures. These expenditures are estimated to be not significant.
